State Championship Preview

By John Hoke, Editor

Here it is state meet time again and the season comes down to just one more race. All the hours and miles of practice through the summer and fall are in the bank and now is the time to cash them in for the chance of a medal or team victory.

The top teams and individuals will be covered below and the full rankings are elsewhere in this issue which is again serving as part of the official program for the state championships at Oral Roberts University October 29th.

It has been a tough season and only one of six defending champions is returning to Tulsa with the number one ranking--North-east senior Cornelius Mason in 4A boys, who is undefeated this season. Buffalo senior, Mark Levings, has been steadily climbing up the 2A boys rankings but is still one from the top as has Little Axe junior, Craig Blanchard in 3A boys.

Two-time champion Jessica Hoke, McGuinness junior, will be back to defend her 4A girls title but still has not fully recovered from missing most of last year's competition in cross country and track. Jenks senior, Carissa Nix, also missed track season due to a stress fracture but will be hoping to help the Trojans claim the 5A girls title. 2A champ Ashlea Barby, Laverne sophomore, was ranked number one all season but got hurt late. Her status will be vital to the Tigers' title hopes.

Seven of the eight team races look to be almost too close to call with some major upsets looming on the horizon. It is going to be down to the wire, so let's get started.

2A Girls

This is going to be a wide open race with any one of four or five girls capable of winning the individual title. Defending champion Ashlea Barby, Laverne sophomore, had a great season going, holding the number one ranking up until she turned an ankle at Alva. She had a tough day at the west regional and finished 11th. The west was won by Canton's Mylissa Seifried with Velma-Alma junior, Crystal Fuller in second.

In the east, Kansas senior Amy Armer, a two-time 1600/3200 double winner on the track, has been looking awesome but finished second to Tahlequah freshman, Amanda Davis, by four seconds, just nosing out Pioneer-Pleasant Vale senior Tara Over-

This issue of Oklahoma TRACK & FIELD NEWS is again serving as part of the official program for the Oklahoma Secondary Schools Activities Association's Cross Country State Championships being held at Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, October 29th. Full results will be in the next issue. If you are reading this and are not already a subscriber, it is time to become one.

The top runners and teams are covered thoroughly in this issue in the state meet preview that begins on page one and the individual and team rankings elsewhere. But, even though they get noticed the most, these runners aren't really the heart of cross country.

A lot of attention gets paid to the highest ranking individuals during the season but no single runner can win a team victory by himself or herself.

The unsung heroes of cross country are the fourth through seventh place runners that put in the same miles in training and run the same races, usually finishing out of the medals, but doing well enough to bring home the trophy. Watch for them! These are the boys and girls who will make the difference between winning and losing. Down in the trenches, this is where the final battles are fought and team titles are won or lost. Pass a runner you get a point--it's worth two if it's your main competition. Get passed and you might lose by a point.

This is what makes cross country so exciting. It's not over until it's over. Not until after the fat lady sings and the team points have been refigured. Nobody goes home after the individual winner has crossed the line--the race is still on and it is up to the foot soldiers to decide the victor. In the end they hand out seven medals to the team winners and every one of them counts.

I had a lot of help with the final individual and team rankings for this issue and I want to thank all the coaches that took the time and effort to return the ballots I sent out last week--it sure made my job easier. I also want to thank Larry Young of Jenks for sending the excellent East Regional photographs--I hope he becomes a regular contributor.

While on the subject of rankings: they make great conversation during the season as long as nobody takes them too seriously and I'm always grateful that they real final ranking takes place on the cross country course at the state meet.

The O.S.S.A.A. cross country advisory board will be meeting next week and this is where the process of changing and improving the sport begins. The members of this board are listed in this issue and they want to know what you think regarding the issues facing us. Don't expect improvement to happen if you won't take part in the process.

Some of the issues up for discussion will be the addition of another class below 2A; changes in regional alignments and number of regionals; state and regional start times; number of teams qualifying for state from regionals; all-star competitions; and anything else you want them to consider. This is our sport. Speak up!

street at the line. Others to watch are Nikki Lanie, Wakita, and Sara Kee, Beaver senior.

In the team race Velma-Alma rates a very slight favorite on the strength of their regional win with either Lexington or Laverne very capable of taking home the first-place trophy. If Barby has a better race it will even be tighter. Tahlequah Sequoyah has an outside chance but even a win by Davis will probably not be enough.

2A Boys

Velma-Alma senior, Zac Johnson, has simply destroyed his competition this year and with his closest competition to date—eight seconds at Jenks-Davenport junior, Daniel McKinney being disqualified at regionals, he looks like a sure thing. However, defending champion Mark Levings, Buffalo senior, may have a different idea, as he has steadily progressed up the rankings ending up second after his west regional second place finish to Johnson.

Other strong contenders include Inola senior, Randy Pifer, east regional champ; Hydro's Jared Black; and Tahlequah Sequoyah sophomore, Jarrod Mooney.

This will be another tight team race with west regional Lindsay getting a slight nod over perennial 2A power, Tahlequah Sequoyah, winner of the east regional. Chisholm is not far back in third and if the leaders falter could step in to fill the spot. After that it is just about anybody's guess.

3A Girls

Nobody has challenged Plainview junior Sara Harvey in this class this year and it is certainly time for her to stand on top of the podium after finishing second two years in a row to four-time winner Natalie Gray of Cascia Hall.

The battle in this race will be for second and there is no shortage of candidates including two outstanding freshmen: Grove's Carly McCulley and Marlow's Leah McCauley. Marlow senior Chrissy Guild has a habit of being at the front of any race along with Elgin junior, Kelleigh Sanders. Jones junior, Cathleen Baumeister, has had a good season also and can be expected to be a contender.

The big news in the team race is that the Indians are not invincible, dropping a two-point decision to the Outlaws in the west regional for their first 3A loss in over three years. This could be one of the tightest races of the day with Grove hoping to play spoiler one way or another but look for the Indians to pull it together and take one more state championship trophy home.

4A Girls

Alone at the top of this class is McGuinness sophomore Ashley Boothe, who hasn't had a close race in Oklahoma this season. Her only loss was to 5A Jenks' Kelli O'Rourke at the Chile Pepper in Arkansas. Everybody else will be duking it out for second with Guthrie sophomore Brandi

Defending State Champions

DEFENDING STATE CHAMPIONS—McGuinness' junior Jessica Hoke (top left) will be seeking her third state 4A title October 29th on the Oral Roberts University course in Tulsa with five others hoping to repeat as champions (clockwise): Northeast senior, Cornelius Mason, 4A; Ashlea Barby, Laverne sophomore, 2A; Mark Levings, Buffalo senior, 2A; Carissa Nix, Jenks senior, 5A; Craig Blanchard, Little Axe junior, 3A.

TULSA--The Enid Plainsmen pulled off the upset of the day, knocking off defending state champion Jenks by one point, 38-39, in the 5A boys East Regional held here at O'Brien Park October 22nd. The Plainsmen were led by individual winner Jason Wolfe, who turned in the fastest boys time of the day with a 16:28 over the muddy course. The Trojans were missing their number two runner, Michael Pense, who was sitting this one out while recovering from a muscle pull suffered in the Frontier Conference meet.

The Little Axe boys served notice that they are finally ready, taking the 3A title behind the 1-2-3-4 punch of defending state champion Craig Blanchard, Ralph Dumas, Brandon Lewis and Jeremy Johnson, and matching West Regional winner Marlow's low score of 18.

Guthrie was the only team to capture both boys and girls titles, sweeping the 4A division with individual winners in both races as well. Brandi Woodard notched the fastest girls time of the day with a 12:17 with teammate Nicole Monroe in second at 12:45. The Bluejays scored 43 points to surprising runnerup Nathan Hale's 64, led by triplets, Brandy, Amy and Melissa Bratton.

For the boys, Santon Jones took home the gold with a 17:01 with Poteau's James Derosa in second at 17:09 while the number one ranked 'Jays easily outdistanced runnerup Claremore, 21-56, putting five runners in the top ten.

In the 2A boys division Tahlequah Sequoyah had a tough battle with Chisholm before taking the boys title 45-53 with Prague in third with 66. Inola's Randy Pifer was the individual winner with the Indian's Jarrold Mooney in second and Prague's Shawn Hicks third.

Lexington was an easy winner over Tahlequah Sequoyah, 37-67, for the 2A girls title with the Indian's Amanda Davis a surprise winner over Kansas' Amy Armer and Pioneer-Pleasant Vale's Tara Overstreet.

Grove dominated the 3A girls race with freshman standout, Carly McCulley taking the individual win while leading her team to a 22-86 margin of victory over Little Axe.

University of Arkansas Open

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. -- The University of Arkansas is hosting a cross country meet on Saturday, November 12, 1994 here on the Razorback golf course. The meet will include many of the top runners from Arkansas and Oklahoma. This meet will not be sanctioned by the Oklahoma Secondary Activities Association, however, the OSSAA does not prohibit runners from participating in meets as unattached runners or individuals. The Oklahoma Track Coaches Association is requiring that all participating runners have a release form signed by their school administration.

Oklahoma runners participating in the meet are asked to meet at the golf course club house at 10:30 a.m. The girl's race will start at 11:30 a.m. and the boys race will begin at 12:00 p.m.

This will be homecoming weekend in Fayetteville and motel accommodations will be scarce. Siloam Springs and Ft. Smith may be the closest towns that have available rooms. Athletes participating in the meet are responsible for making their own arrangements.

For further information contact: David Morton, Bishop McGuinness High School, 801 N.W. 50th, Oklahoma City, OK 73118; School phone 405-842-6639; Home phone 405-341-0877 or Barry Klein, Little Axe High School, 2000 N.E. 168th Avenue, Norman, OK 73071; School phone 405-329-4603.

West Regional

Midwest City
10/22/94

MIDWEST CITY—In a preview of two of the top match-ups coming up at the state meet the underdogs won one and the top dogs won the other in the West Regional held here on a beautiful, sunny (too warm) day at Regional Park October 22nd. The once invincible 3A Plainview girls fell to arch-rival Marlow, 32-34, while number one ranked Velma-Alma knocked off Laverne, 68-73.

It was the first loss to a 3A team—the only other to Bartlesville last year in the Meet of Champions—in at least three years for the Indians who were the victims of a steadily improving Outlaw team. The Comets got an outstanding performance from Crystal Fuller who finished second to Canton's Mylissa Seifried while the Tigers' defending state champion, Ashlea Barby, had a tough day, finishing 11th.

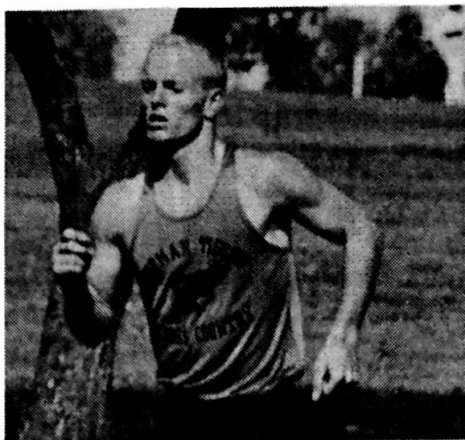

In the only other close race, the Norman boys barely edged upstart Midwest City, 76-79, for the 5A title with Joey Donnelly back in the lineup for the Tigers but not up to par.

Northeast's Cornelius Mason had another terrific day, setting a new course record in running away with the 4A boys crown. Mason's 16:03 was a 15 second improvement over Noble's Chad Weaver's 16:18 set in 1993. The McGuinness boys had no problem taking the 4A team title, outdistancing runnerup Duncan, 38-76, led by number-two finisher, Mike Connolly.

The Moore girls were the most impressive girls team of the day, capturing the 5A title again with a 30-second spread between their first and fifth runners. The Lions were led by individual winner Melissa Flood who came in at 12:15.

McGuinness put six runners in the top ten in running away with the 4A girls title behind the first-place finish of number one ranked Ashley Boothe.

In the 2A boys race, Velma-Alma's Zac Johnson continued to dominate the class with a 33-second win over defending state champion Mark Levings of Buffalo while Lindsay easily took the team title, 47-77 over Keyes.

In the 3A boys race, the three-time state champs from Marlow served notice that they are ready to notch another one with the day's biggest margin of victory, 18-60 over Plainview, putting five runners in the top seven. The Outlaws and the Irish were the only teams to take both boys and girls titles.

STILLWATER--The McGuinness girls, led by a course-record performance from Ashley Boothe, won the 57th Annual Cowboy Jamboree held here on the OSU golf course October 15th. This is the oldest continuous cross country meet in the nation.

Boothe, running virtually by herself, broke the record of 11:39.43 set by Natalie Gray, Cascia Hall, in the 1993 Jamboree.

The Edmond Memorial boys barely edged the Irish for the boys title with Holland Hall's Parker Fleming taking the top individual honors.

Lubbock Christian went one-two in the mens race with Simeon Sawe and Julius Randich running 29:58 and 30:02 to nab the team title over Arkansas. Sawes' time was only the third time under 30:00 on this course.

In the womens division the University of Oklahoma, behind individual winner Alice Braham, took the top honors with Oklahoma State in second.

There are a host of other contenders including McGuinness senior Jill Airington, second in the east; Elk City junior, Valerie Smith; Guthrie juniors Nicole Monroe and Kelli Cowan; McGuinness' defending champion Jessica Hoke and freshman Kelly Long; Santa Fe freshman Randi McKinney; and Durant's Courtney Moody, second in '92. These girls have been trading places all season, along with several others, so it will be a great race to watch.

Unfortunately for everyone else in this division, the Irish have four or five girls capable of being in the top ten and are really the only team in eight races that looks assured of winning. The Irish will be going for their third straight team title (the boys as well) and with only one senior on the squad, have high hopes for the future as well.

It will be a real fight for the runnerup trophy in this division with any one of four teams capable of taking it. Guthrie looks like the best but don't count Elk City, Hale or Santa Fe out of the running.

4A Boys

Northeast senior Cornelius Mason has dominated every race he's been in this year and he set a course record at the west regional at Midwest City's Regional Park. He will be a contender for fastest time of the day while the rest of the 4A boys field tries to sort it out for the rest of the top ten and the team trophy.

Second place is wide open in this race too, with the team favorite, Guthrie, counting on top finishes from Santon Jones, east regional winner; Jeremy Cleek, Mike Damron and Barry Mize. Poteau's James DeRosa was second in the east regional followed by Claremore's Clarence Shortbull. McGuinness is counting on senior Mike Connolly, second to Mason in the west regional and sophomores Taylor Styron and Matt Sexauer. John Marshall's Kevin Calhoun was third in the west followed by Duncan's Toby Filener.

Guthrie's Bluejays have a strong hold on the top spot in this class with no class losses and boast one of the best boys teams in the state. They have been the victims of the Irish in the last two state meets, including a one point loss last year, and would like nothing better than to chalk up one more victory this year and take home the team trophy.

However, don't count McGuinness out. They have steadily improved all season and certainly aren't counting themselves out of the running. Claremore, Duncan and Santa Fe will be waiting to step into the runnerup spot if one of the top two falls apart.

5A Girls

As in 3A and 4A there is one runner alone at the top of this class. Jenks freshman Kelli O'Rourke has not lost to an Oklahoma runner this season and, along with Harvey and Boothe, will be a contender for fastest time of the day on the Oral Roberts course.

Moore senior, Melissa Flood, west regional winner, along with O'Rourke's Trojan teammate, freshman Renee Ahlgren--east runnerup-- will be top contenders for the number two slot. Others to watch--and this is a tight race too--are Norman's Sherry Horton, Hilary Reser, Andrea DeLozier and Stephanie Adams; Mustang's Corrie Hussar; Stillwater senior, Andrea Haley; Moore's Lindsey Shelters and Kim Settle.

This is another tight--very tight--team race and the nod is going to Moore even though Jenks has held down the top spot since the beginning of the season and has not been beaten. The Lion girls had a remarkable 30 second spread from first runner to fifth in the regional, compared to the Trojan's 45 seconds and the two teams have not met yet this season. Norman, with four girls capable of being in the top ten, will be a factor in this race and could very well walk away with the trophy if they have a good race.

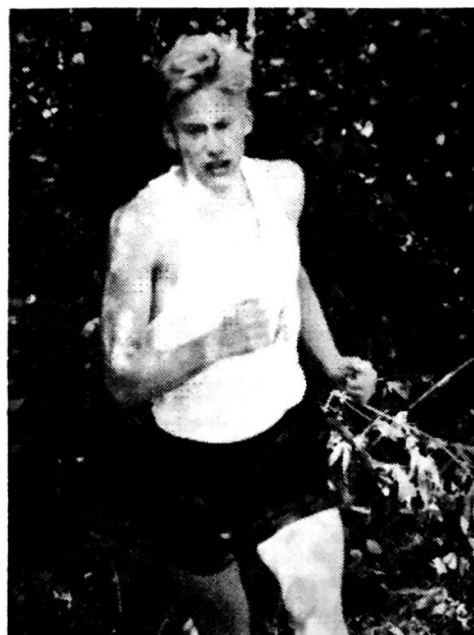

Bartlesville, the defending champion, suffering from graduation, injury and move out losses, leads the rest of the top ten.

5A Boys

This is a toughie. There is really no clear-cut favorite this year. Norman senior, Joey Donnelly, was looking great until he was injured a few weeks ago and though he is back, wasn't up to par in his west regional sixth place finish. Enid's senior, Jason Wolfe, won the east regional and Jenks has two contenders in junior Jeff Reid, and sophomore Mike Pense. Reid was east runnerup and Pense sat it out with an injury but will compete at state.

Edmond Memorial sophomore, Mark Thompson, won the west regional and Norman's Jeff Baer, finally with his eligibility back, was second followed by Eisenhower's Welton Jefferson.

Then you have Bartlesville freshman Bryan Hayes, who was looking like a real contender and first ever (?) frosh winner, along with Charles Page's Michael Cliff, until their miserable east regional finishes.....? This is the last race of the day and it certainly will be worth waiting around for.

As for the team race. Whew! Jenks, looking for their seventh straight title, has held the top spot all season but they got beat by Enid in the east regional without Pense. Norman has been running without a full team all season but could put it all together for the big one, as they have been know to do. It could go to any one of these three--opps, don't forget upstart Midwest City who only lost to Norman by three points at the west regional and is real hungry.

Alva Invitational

ALVA--Laverne notched the girls team victory behind the first place finish of defending state champion Ashlea Barby in the Alva Invitational held here October 15th while Chisholm took home the boys trophy. Guymon's Chad Williams was the boys individual winner.
