1996 Cross Country State Meet Preview

By John Hoke
Editor

The regional meets were held October 26th, under almost perfect conditions—except for it being a little warm for the late-afternoon races—at Tulsa's O'Brien Park and Midwest City's Regional Park.

The state meet is set to start at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, November 2nd, at Oral Roberts University, 81st and Lewis in Tulsa. Admission to the meet is going to be charged, according to Oklahoma Secondary Schools Activities Association coordinator, David Jackson, contrary to my un-researched comment in the last issue.

The regionals were hotly contested with no big surprises at either end of the state. The West had eight of the top-ranked individuals with only two number-one runners competing in the East while virtually every one of the 10 top-ranked teams was at the West meet.

The top times at O'Brien went to 4A Hale junior, Brandy Bratton, state runnerup in '95, with an 11:54 while 5A Charles Page senior, Michael Cliff, notched the best boys time with a 16:09. Both are second-ranked in their class.

At Midwest City, Mustang senior and defending champion, Corrie Hussar, turned in an impressive 11:44 and Edmond Memorial's two-time champ, senior Mark Thompson, ran a 15:53. The closest team race of the West was Hydro's nine-point win over Velma-Alma in Class A boys and the largest margin went to McGuinness' 75-point win over Noble. In the East, the closest was Tahlequah Sequoyah's three-pointer over Chisholm in 2A boys and the largest a tie between Lexington's 47-point win over Warner in 3A girls and Little Axe boys over Mannford in 3A boys by the same margin.

Six returning champions and two former champions highlight a list of nearly 50 returning All-Staters in five classes this year, with the addition of a new Class A.

Only four of the defending champs are going into the meet with the number one ranking. Besides Hussar and Thompson, McGuinness two-time champ, senior Ashley Boothe is picked to repeat in 4A girls while Velma-Alma sophomore Rae Ann McCurry is at the top of Class A after winning 2A last year.

Five of the eight defending team champions are picked to repeat, or take their new class as the case

STATE MEET NOTES: I talked to a few coaches at the pre-state meet on the course at Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, October 11th, and somehow got the idea that the plan for charging admission to the state meet had been set aside. Unfortunately, I mentioned that in this space in the last issue without getting confirmation from the O.S.S.A.A. coordinator, David Jackson, who let me know a few days ago that they were, indeed, going to charge admission to the state meet.

I hope my error doesn't cause anyone to feel that they have a right to expect free admission because I do feel strongly that cross country needs the income that could be generated from an admission charge. I know it is tough to imagine paying to see something that has always been free but, I promise that we will languish in the dark ages financially until we come up with a way to increase the income the sport produces for the O.S.S.A.A.

In the years that I have attended the meet at ORU it has truly been a first class affair with adequate parking, decent restroom facilities, speedy results and a great facility for the awards. I trust all of these attributes will continue to apply, especially with the added income from an admission charge.

I'm really thrilled to see the addition of Class A to the state meet program. I think this will be a big boost to increasing the exposure of cross country to many of our smaller schools and I'm confident that the imbalance created between classes can be rectified in the not-too-distant future.

I was very disappointed in the newspaper coverage of the cross country regionals held October 26th in Tulsa and Midwest City. Neither of the state's major newspapers--The Tulsa World nor The Daily Oklahoman--ran complete results in their Sunday editions. This is a problem we have faced all season and it starts with prompt reporting of the results to each of the major media outlets--including the Oklahoma TRACK & FIELD NEWS--in a clear and concise form that can be read and understood by an editor not necessarily familiar with the sport. If the newspaper has the results, the next step is to make them realize that you are a subscriber and expect them to give decent coverage to our events. Call, write, make your voice heard. I promise they will continue to ignore cross country until we raise our collective voices to make them realize that we expect fair coverage.

I'm not sure why the coaches on the advisory committee voted to limit the number of runners on the awards stand at the state meet awards ceremony but I think it was a mistake. We pride ourselves on being a team sport that embraces all members of the team from the state champion to the last guy on the junior varsity. I think the little bit of extra time it takes to honor these full teams is well worth the effort and I would hope that the rule will be dropped at their next meeting after the state meet. If you feel the same way, let your representative know--his name is listed at the bottom of the column to the right of this note.

If you aren't a subscriber to the Oklahoma TRACK & FIELD NEWS there is a subscription blank somewhere in this issue. The next issue will contain full results and photos from the state meet and hopefully from the Oklahoma vs Arkansas All-Star Meet.

See you at the state meet!

may be, and there will probably be two or three blowouts and a couple really close ones--it is the state meet, after all!

The schedule starts with Class A at 11:00 and will work its way up with 5A being the last race of the day.

Class A Girls

This is a new class with an old face at the front. Velma-Alma took the 2A title last year and was second only to 4A McGuinness in the final Power Ranking. The Comets of coach Jerry Loveall aren't as dominant a force this year, dropping a few early meets to larger class competition, but they still have four runners ranked in the top ten behind defender McCurry and won the West Regional by 39 points over number-two ranked

Canton.

Pioneer's Andrea Overstreet won the East Regional and Boise City junior, Darla Bockock, was second in the West. '93 champ, Laveerne senior Ashlea Barby, will be back in the field for her final year. Beaver took the East Regional team title but the top five ranked teams were at the West--let's hope for a better alignment next year.

Overstreet

Class A Boys

Another familiar 2A face leads this race with young Hydro planning on taking home the hardware they left behind last year after entering the race as the favorite. Coach Alan Hibler's charges have matured this year but only won the West Regional by nine points over Velma-Alma.

McDonald

Defending 2A champ, Velma-Alma sophomore Mylo Miller, was impressive early in the season but has been seriously hampered by an injury late in the year. Foyil's East Regional champ, senior Jason McDonald, takes over the top spot with Hydro junior Walt Ginn and sophomore Herbie Pebeashy in hot pursuit along with Heritage Hall senior Sean Strickland.

Keyes won the team title in the East Regional over Hinton but is an unknown factor against the West teams.

Class 2A Girls

With Velma-Alma gone this class might have been wide open but perennial 3A power Plainview dropped from the sky in the re-shuffle caused by the new Class A and has been the dominant team in class competition so far. Led by number-two ranked junior, Becky Harvey, the Indians of Jerry Naylor won the West Regional by 39 points over Lindsay.

Plainview won't have a cake-walk to the title if Lexington has anything to say about it. Coach C. Art Wheeler's Bulldog's have been steadily improving all year, taking their first big win in the East Regional over a tough field that included Warner, Chisholm, Tishomingo and Jones. This will be a good race.

Individually, Victory Christian junior, Tasha Lance, has been one of the top girls in the state, regardless of class, but didn't compete last year since VC was not in the OSSAA. Other contenders include Lindsay's Marda Traylor, Warner sophomore Miley Turnbull and Beggs Jill Fuqua.

Lance

Class 2A Boys

Dickson looked like a lock for the title in 3A last year but had a horrible state meet with the heat-related collapse of one of their top runners less than 50 meters from the finish. This year, coach Ron Love's Comets worked their way toward the top of 2A without '94 champion David Lampkin, who had moved to Del City.

Lampkin

However, Lampkin moved back to Dickson a few weeks ago, regaining his eligibility and propelled the Comets into solid favorites again this year.

Dickson won the West Regional by 28 points over Elgin while defending champ Tahlequah Sequoyah finally came alive to edge Chisholm by three in the East.

Holmes

Chandler senior Bobby Holmes has dominated this class all year but there are a handful of challengers that include Prague junior Daniel Stone, Lampkin, Caney Valley's Joey McNair and Marietta's Martin Salas.

Class 3A Girls

This class was hurt by the loss of several top teams in the Class A related re-shuffle but gained tough Elk City from 4A.

Marlow has one of the most consistent programs in the state, with four championships and four runner-up trophies in the last eight years, and it doesn't look like the Outlaws of coach Jimmy Brackeen are slowing down. After a slow start, the Outlaws have gained strength to the point of being a contender for the top spot in the 1996 Power Ranking and won the prestigious Chile Pepper over McGuinness and Velma-Alma. In the pre-state meet at Oral Roberts only 5A Westmoore beat Marlow in team average time.

McCauley

Marlow will be looking out for perennial state-meet team Little Axe, known for their surprising strength at the end of the season. Coach Barry Klein's Indians won the East Regional over Mannford and had a strong showing at the Chile Pepper as well.

Marlow junior Leah McCauley has been the top runner in this class all season but will face Cascia Hall's East Regional winner, senior Katie McGraw at state. Other contenders include Elk City sophomore Amy Kilhoffer, Marlow freshman Michelle Poeling and Cascia Hall junior Sara Jurek. Purcell's diminutive freshman, Amy Dunaway, led most of the race in the West Regional but slipped to fourth in the finish and could very well be up there at state.

Class 3A Boys

Elk City dropped from 4A into a tough field here and have held the top spot all season against veteran 3A powers that include two-time defending champion Little Axe and Marlow. Coach Mark Heard's Elks have four runners ranked in the top ten and took the West Regional over Marlow while Little Axe popped back to the top in the East.

Heard will be looking to take his first state meet scalp from previous state meet winners Klein and Brackeen, neither of which should be counted as coup until the dust clears.

Class 4A Girls

Four-in-a-row champion McGuinness was not expected to have a problem making it five, but Dave Morton's Irish showed their mortality when they squeaked by Weatherford, 32-32, on a sixth runner tie-breaker, in a mid-season meet at Lake Overholser in Oklahoma City. The sluggish Irish finally came alive at the West Regional, beating the Lady Eagles by 38 points and taking the top four places in the process.

McGuinness has not lost to a 4A team in at least four years and is led by senior stalwart Ashley Boothe, shooting to become a rare three-time champ. Standing in her way will be Hale's Brandy Bratton, East Regional winner with the fastest time and very impressive so far, but the two have not met since last year's meet when Boothe took the title by nine seconds. The Irish have four runners in the top ten, with Boothe the only senior on the team.

Boothe

Tulsa schools Hale and Kelley will again be expected to mount the defense, along with the surprising Lady Eagles. Other individuals to watch are Kelley sophomore Tracy Kmetz, Irish frosh Maggie Kelly, Brandy's sister Amy and triple track champ, Guthrie senior Brandi Woodard.

Connolly

Behind the one-two punch of one-two ranked sophomore Kevin Connolly and senior Matt Sexauer, the Irish have virtually destroyed the 4A field in every encounter. Deep and young, the Irish put seven in the top ten while winning the West Regional and their JV would honestly be a serious contender for the runnerup trophy if they could compete in the race.

No team has stepped forward to fill Guthrie's shoes as the chief nemesis for the Irish but Edison gets the honor in spite of the possibility of not having a single runner in the top 15. Guthrie was decimated by graduation but may firm up enough by state to be the best of the rest.

Individually, Connolly was favored last year but finished fourth behind champion teammate Taylor Styron and Sexauer in second. He has left no doubt he doesn't intend to let that happen again, winning the individual title at the Chile

Sexauer

Pepper and only bowing to 5A aces Thompson and Cliff all season. In the hunt for the other top medals will be teammates Sexauer, sophomore Patrick Eberle, Ft. Gibson senior Mike Pense--transfer from Jenks--Weatherford junior Matt Donley and Western Heights sophomore Phillip Semien.

Class 5A Girls

Defending champion Jenks Pense has not been impressive this season and lost the top ranking to Westmore at the pre-state meet on the ORU course October 11th. The Trojans have the horses to pull off another win for first-year coach Martha O'Rourke but they haven't shown that they can all pull together on the same day.

The Jaguars have knocked-off all the top girls teams in the state in either head-to-head competition or better average times on the same course on the same day and were impressive in winning the West Regional over Moore by 26 points. The Trojans have had trouble several times, including dropping the Frontier Conference to Sapulpa just a couple weeks ago but came through with a strong performance to win the East Regional. This will be one of the closest races of the meet and will come down to who has the best day.

Defending champion Corrie Hussar has not had a close race all season and it would be a big surprise if anyone challenged her at ORU. There are a host of challengers but the race will most certainly be for second if the season's previous results are any indication. Westmore sophomore Allison Franklin, Union senior Megan Riddle--winner of the West Regional--Jenks freshman Atalie Barber and Owasso sophomore Christine Novara all are capable of stepping up and it should be a tight race for the silver.

Class 5A Boys

This will be the last race of the day and it should be worth the wait just to see two-time champ Mark Thompson, Edmond Memorial senior, duke it out with mile and two-mile track champ Michael Cliff, Charles Page senior. The two have only met once this season, matching each other stride-for-stride at the Cowboy Jamboree in Stillwater October 5th. Thompson kept his perfect record intact, pulling away in the final 200 meters but Cliff thinks he mis-judged the finish and sprinted too early. This could be an epic battle that will leave the rest of the field to settle the issue of which team takes home the top trophy.

Last year coach David Sammons Bulldogs unseated seven-in-a-row champion Jenks in spite of having one of their top runners in the hospital. This year, no one has even come close as the 'Dogs have trashed all comers. Jenks should be able to hold on for second but Ponca City will not go down without a fight.

Other top individuals will include Sapulpa junior Ben Lake, Edmond Memorial senior Blaine Phipps, Moore junior Jimmy Martinez, Mustang senior Matt Davidson and Jenks sophomore Clay Cosby.
