On Track

By John Hoke, Editor

This issue of Oklahoma Track & Field News is a special edition being distributed only at the small school state meets and large school regionals the weekend of May 5-6. It is again one of the largest we've ever produced and includes all regionals and seven sets of leaders lists. The season leaders lists have been updated to include the regionals and the team rankings are based on these lists pointed out. You can also find the state meet records and overall state records at the back of this issue and the schedule of events for the state meet. These records have been compiled by Ray Soldan and are sponsored by the Oklahoma Track Coaches Association. There is also a schedule for all USAT&F and AAU summer track meets in this issue.

We will be covering both sites with several writers and photographers and the coverage will be in the next regular issue of OT&FN May 12, which is also the pre-view issue for the large school state meets.

The future of Oklahoma Track & Field News is still up in the air though the last two issues of the season will be out for sure. We will accept subscriptions for next year but will refund them if we decide not to publish. This is a tough decision and one that probably won't be etched in stone until after the Oklahoma Track Coaches Association's summer meeting in July.

See you at the state meet!

First State Track Championships of the Millennium

By John Hoke

The small school state meets are being held Friday and Saturday, May 5-6, with the 3A-2A meet at Choctaw High School and the A-B meet at Putnam City High School. This is a special edition of the Oklahoma Track & Field News which includes all the regional results and meets not reported in the last regular issue (April 29). The season leader lists have been updated to include regional.

The team rankings in this issue are based mostly on the season leader lists with the points being roughly totaled as if that was the finish, though, as with any rankings, they have to be taken with a grain of salt. As usual, there are going to be a lot of close races and these rankings are only intended to reflect the performances in the season so far.

New meet records will abound with the addition of the girls pole vault. Every winner will go down in the record book, at least a year.

3A Boys

Elk City lived up to its No. 1 ranking and prevented McGuinness from capturing their third straight title last year on the strength of a come-from-behind win in the opening 3200 meter relay over the favored Irish. It looks to be a battle between these two again and the Elks get the nod based on overall strength, although the Irish won over the Elks at the Watonga regional. McGuinness, traditionally strong in the distance events, was almost shut out of the longer races and will have to rely on their relays and field events to regain their title. Bristow and Cushing will do battle for place.

Bristow's Larron Alexander returns to defend his 100/200 titles while Weatherford's Wes Sims will be defending in both the shot and discus.

Projected Finish: 1. Elk City, 2. McGuinness, 3. Bristow, 4. Cushing, 5. Pauls Valley, 6. Weatherford, 7. Okmulgee, 8. Elgin, 9. Vinita, 10. Star Spencer.

Defending Champion: Elk City

Returning Champions: 100—Larron Alexander, Bristow. 200—Larron Alexander, Bristow. 800—Dustin Moore, Anadarko. Shot—Wes Sims, Weatherford. Discus—Wes Sims, Weatherford. High Jump—Blake Slavonic, McGuinness. Pole Vault—Austin Landreth, Elk City (two time).

3A Girls

Last year Plainview went into the meet a heavy favorite over defending champion McGuinness but the Irish were not to be denied, winning by a whopping 71 points. This year, Plainview is terrorizing 2A and there doesn't appear to be a really serious challenge to the Irish domination of recent years. McGuinness has the top time in three of the four relays and is second in the fourth. Elk City is a distant second and could face a challenge from Broken Bow and Miami.

Sallisaw's Shannon Hawes will be gunning for dual 100/200 titles and McGuinness' junior Amanda Jordan will be looking to regain her 1998 titles in the 1600/3200 as junior teammate Kelsey Strecker goes for her third long jump title.

Projected Finish: 1. McGuinness, 2. Elk City, 3. Broken Bow, 4. Miami, 5. Marlow, 6. Star Spencer, 7. Okmulgee, 8. Weatherford, 9. Cushing, 10. Grove.

Defending Champion: McGuinness

Returning Champions: 100—Shannon Hawes, Sallisaw. 200—Shannon Hawes, Sallisaw (two time). 400—Bernadette Benson, McGuinness. 800—Jamie Lucero, Guymon (1998). 1600—Amanda Jordan, McGuinness (1998). 3200—Amanda Jordan, McGuinness (1998). Long Jump—Kelsey Strecker, McGuinness (two time).

2A Boys

This class is really a toss up with defending champions Millwood and Spiro pretty much out of the picture in the team race. Watonga, always a threat in this class, is strong in the distances and field events. Both Plainview and Cascia Hall have the potential to win it and Stroud could break into the trophies as well.

This is where Stroud's phenomenal sophomore thrower, Kevin Bookout, will be looking to add to his titles—don't stand too close.

Projected Finish: 1. Watonga, 2. Plainview, 3. Cascia Hall, 4. Stroud, 5. Millwood, 6. Pawnee, 7. Alva, 8. Chisholm, 9. Spiro, 10. Fairview.

Defending Champions: Millwood and Spiro

Returning Champions: 800—Jim Bob Coleman, Watonga. 1600—Jim Bob Coleman, Watonga. 3200—Ryan Bickerstaff, Alva. 110H—Brontez Steele, Spiro (3A in 1998). High Jump—Kyle Blair, Lexington. Shot—Kevin Bookout, Stroud. Discus—Kevin Bookout, Stroud.

2A Girls

Plainview will be hard to beat behind the massive point-scoring machine of Jesse Gordon who is also a contender to set a new state record in the 1600. She ran a 5:02 at the Texas Relays but she's not likely to have anyone to chase here. One of the best races of the meet should be Gordon against Lexington's Amanda Wedel in the 800. Gordon edged Wedel in the regional but this will be a new race. Wedel is a threat in the 200 and 400 as well.

Watonga, Madill and Millwood will be duking it out for the rest of the trophies.

Projected Finish: 1. Plainview, 2. Watonga, 3. Madill, 4. Millwood, 5. Heritage Hall, 6. Lexington, 7. Woodward, 8. Henryetta, 9. Lindsay, 10. Bethany.

Defending Champion: Warner

Returning Champions: 200—Amanda Wedel, Lexington (1998). 400—Amanda Wedel, Lexington (two time). 800—Jesse Gordon, Plainview (3A). 1600—Jesse Gordon, Plainview (3A). 3200—Jesse Gordon, Plainview (3A). Discus—Kendra McBurl, Pawhuska. High Jump—Misty Kokojan, Chisholm.

A Boys

Hominy has a well-balanced team is looking to unseat panhandle power Turpin for the championship. Velma-Alma, Turpin and Hooker are right in the middle of this race as well. This is one of those classes where there are always a lot of surprises since many of the schools compete frequently out of state and the results don't often appear anywhere.

Hinton sophomore Justin Pitchford will be gunning for his second 800 title.

Projected Finish: 1. Hominy, 2. Velma-Alma, 3. Turpin, 4. Hooker, 5. Pioneer, 6. Carnegie, 7. Hollis, 8. Thomas, 9. Tonkawa, 10. Hinton.

Defending Champion: Turpin

Returning Champions: 400—Chris Benson, Turpin. 800—Justin Pitchford, Hinton.

A Girls

Another toss-up with defending champ Velma-Alma the favorite. Turpin and Tonkawa both have legitimate shots at the title and the next three—Pioneer, Waurika and Depew—will do battle for the bronze.

The Comets' Courtney Chapman will be looking to double again in the shot and discus while Tonkawa's Keyonna Hornbuckle will be out to do the same in the 400/800.

Projected Finish: 1. Velma-Alma, 2. Turpin, 3. Tonkawa, 4. Pioneer, 5. Waurika, 6. Depew, 7. Laverne, 8. Walters, 9. Carnegie, 10. Hollis.

Defending Champion: Velma-Alma

Returning Champions: 100—Jorinda Griffin, Waurika (two time). 200—Mendy Headrick, Turpin. 400—Keyonna Hornbuckle, Tonkawa. 800—Keyonna Hornbuckle, Tonkawa. High Jump—Tia Smith, Crescent. Shot—Courtney Chapman, Velma-Alma. Discus—Courtney Chapman, Velma-Alma.

B Boys

Cherokee and Medford will be conspiring to oust the panhandle teams and claim the title for northern Oklahoma but don't count either Boise City or Beaver out of the race. This is also one of those wide-open races and you never know what's going to happen.

Projected Finish: 1. Cherokee, 2. Medford, 3. Boise City, 4. Beaver, 5. Timberlake, 6. Maysville, 7. Caddo, 8. Afton, 9. Deer Creek-Lamont, 10. Burlington.

Defending Champion: Boise City

Returning Champions: High Jump—Matt Rosebery, Boise City

B Girls

Look for a new champion here as Beaver, Fox, Cherokee and Canton all do battle for the hardware. Watch out for a new state record in the shot from Cherokee's Barbara Phillips. Canton's Beth Hooten will be shooting to double again and only teammate Nancy Gray is liable to keep her from it.

Projected Finish: 1. Beaver, 2. Fox, 3. Cherokee, 4. Canton, 5. Pond Creek-Hunter, 6. Boise City, 7. Timberlake, 8. Garber, 9. Buffalo, 10. Medford.

Defending Champion: Boise City

Returning Champions: 400—Cassie Pierce, Timberlake. 800—Beth Hooten, Canton. 1600—Beth Hooten, Canton. 3200—Nancy Gray, Canton. Shot—Barbara Phillips, Cherokee (two time). Long Jump—Cassie Wheeler, Drummond.
